Re payment of allowance to Vice presidents as ex-charge presidents

From

The Dy Commr, Kanau St
No M/c 733/48 49 dated 12 10 48

Solicit instructions as to whether the Vice president when ex charge of the duties of the president during the latter's absence, on leave or till the election of a new president should be allowed his allowance of Rs 30/- plus charge allowance at $\frac{1}{10}$ of the president's allowance of Rs 50/- ^{or the full allowance of Rs 50/-} permissible to the president

1) The full allowance during the ex charge period may be permissible if no part of the allowance is drawn by the permanent president. On the other hand if the permanent president draws the conveyance allowance during his absence, on leave or otherwise, the Vice president who will be in charge of his duties should again be allowed the full rate of the allowance as this amounts to two persons drawing the allowance in the same office involving additional expenditure to the Municipality

2) The Comptroller may also perhaps be consulted on officially settling the matter

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER, HASSAN DISTRICT, DATED, HASSAN THE 18TH OCTOBER, 1948

To

The Secretary to Government, Revenue Department,
Bangalore.

Sir,

Re payment of allowance to vice-presidents
as in charge Presidents

I write to state that the payment of an allowance of P 50/- and Rs 30/- p m is admissible to the President and Vice Presidents of Town Municipal Councils Under Section 23(8) and 26(2)(b) of the Town Municipal Act the Vice President is competent to function as President during the period of leave of the President or till a new president is elected While the vice president functions as president in such circumstances the vacancy in the office of the Vice-President can be filled up by electing another vice president as ~~xx~~ laid down in Section 23(8) referred to above

It is a point for orders as to whether in such instances the Vice President who functions as President is entitled to an allowance of P 50/- p m which is sanctioned to the President or whether he is entitled to his own allowance of P 30/- plus charge allowance at 1/10 of the president's allowance or acting allowance at 1/5 of P 50/- Since the rule provides for the election of a vice president while the permanent vice president functions as president, I think the vice president will be virtually the president and so long as he continues to be so he is entitled to the allowance of Rs 50/- sanctioned to the President I request that clear instructions may kindly be issued in this behalf for guidance

For example, the elected non-official president in Arsikere Town Municipality went on leave from 5-7-1947 and subsequently resigned his office after some months The vice president took his place and the office of the vice president was not filled up A new president was elected and he assumed charge of the office of the President from 13-2-1948 In this instance it is for kind orders as to whether the vice president is entitled to receive an allowance of P 50/- p m from 5-7-1947 to 13-2-1948 The Municipal Council have also resolved to pay him this allowance The payment of allowance to President and vice president of this Municipality is sanctioned in Government Order No L 12167-8/Ml 6-47-18 dated 27-12-47

Yours faithfully,

Deputy Commissioner,
